DANCING AND SONG WITH THE RUMBURGH MORRIS DANCERS

TUESDAY 25TH JUNE, 7:30<sup>PM</sup>

The Rumburgh Morris Dancers are a mixed-sex side, dancing traditional Cotswold Morris. The fun starts with dancing in the gardens, and then as the sun drops at dusk, join us in the bar, where the dancers will be holding a folk session and singalong in the bar.

FREE ENTRY, ALL WELCOME

Circle 67's popular Shorter Shakespeare Summer Tour makes a much welcome return! This summer sees a production of The Merry Wives of Windsor - arguably the Bard's most amusing and upbeat play. Entrance is free, but donations are kindly requested by Circle 67 into their hat at the end of the performance.

Please take seats at 7<sup>pm</sup> for a 7:30<sup>pm</sup> sharp start. We cannot guarantee seat availability or reserve seats, so arrive early to baggy the best spots!

Please note this performance is not suitable for small children. Only food and drink purchased from The Queen's Head may be consumed on the premises. Please kindly note that food service will only be available inside the pub after 6:30<sup>pm</sup>. This is out of respect to the actors to ensure minimal disruption during the performance.
